HAVANA, Cuba, Nov 30 (ACN) A massive pilgrimage from the Martí library, where the Commander in Chief, Fidel Castro, spoke to the people on January 6, 1959, will march today to the Ernesto Che Guevara Sculptural Complex, a place where they will hold a vigil in tribute to the leader of the Revolution.

Starting at eight o'clock at night the workers organized by unions and the students of the different universities, together with the rest of the population will start the march to the place where exactly one year ago, Fidel and Che met again, two Latin American paladins that fought for a better world.

On the occasion of the first anniversary of the physical disappearance of the historical leader of the Revolution, the cultural evening will be held to fill the square with music, song and poetry by various artistic groups of the territory.

In addition, audiovisual materials will be projected on giant screens in which images of Fidel will be shown in his multiple tours of this central territory.

The artistic program includes the performance of the vocal choir Musa, the Quinteto Criollo, Alejandro's orchestra and their Onix, accompanied by students from the School of Art, who will interpret the popular song Riding with Fidel, by singer-songwriter Raúl Torres.

The vocalist Gustavo Felipe Remedios will also perform along the trios Sedacero and Palabras, the folkloric ensemble Awo Ache, members of the Trovuntivitis, the Baila Cuba company and poets.
