During his visit to the areas, where different species developed by the country's agricultural sector are exhibited, the owner exchanged with a group of producers, company managers and professionals linked to the livestock sector, among others.

He also toured the outer space that shows the agricultural equipment and accessories of the technologies in operation and in the perspective of being used.

As part of Fiagrop, which opened its doors this Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. and will conclude on March 25th, this Monday will see the opening of the Trade Fair in which more than 220 exhibitors will take part.

Representatives from 17 countries confirmed their presence, including Spain, Germany, Mexico, Panama, Holland, Brazil and Mexico, Argentina, Colombia, Uruguay, Guatemala, Ghana, United States and Uruguay.

The objective of the fair is to promote the portfolio of foreign investment opportunities in the sector and business ideas, raise the livestock and agri-food culture, promote rodeo as a sport for farmers and attract long-term funding.
