CAMAGUEY, Cuba, October 13.— Japanese representatives condemned on Friday in Camaguey the US economic, commercial and financial blockade against Cuba.

Viaje Mesa Redonda is the name of the Japanese delegation that is part of the Tenemos Memoria (We have Memories) activities which includes Solidarity vs. Blockade organized by the Institute of Friendship with the Peoples, ICAP.

The condemnation of the US aggression unites many of the solidarity groups that visit the Caribbean island and with time will become another nation in which ICAP will welcome each year.

During their stay in Camaguey, the Japanese representatives exchanged with students from the Alvaro Morell High School discussed issues related to the genocidal policy, reported cadenagramonte.cu website.

The President of the group, Reiko Kato, said that they are proud to personally experience the reality of the Cuban people.

The Japanese visitors informed the members of a community in Camaguey about their experiences on the group's over ten-year work disseminating the reality of the Cuban people and the number of obstacles of the blockade on the island, reported Adelante newspaper in its digital version.

As part of their tour through the country, which will end on October 17th, the Japanese delegation traveled to Bayamo in Granma province after having visited Havana, Santa Clara, Cienfuegos, Sancti Spiritus and Trinidad.

The group, made up by members of different Japanese solidarity organizations, is scheduled to visit the Santa

Ifigenia Cemetery in Santiago de Cuba to pay tribute to the leader of the Revolution Fidel Castro and later will visit Holguin.
